

Abergafren Beach Lodge

Portmeirion

“Welcome to the Abergafren Beach Lodge”

Abergafren Beach Lodge has been lovingly created to compliment the magnificent location and is situated right next to the famous Italianate village of Portmeirion where the cult series ‘Prisoner’ was filmed back in the 1960’s starring Patrick McGooghan.

The location is ideal for anyone interested in bird-watching, steam-train enthusiasts, photography, fishing from the beach in front of the lodge and swimming. It is also ideal for artists, walkers, or just to get away from it all as the location offers total privacy.

“The location is so close to local amenities yet offers total privacy”

“Your own steps to the beach”

“Absolute water front”

Bedroom

En-Suite double bedroom with Queen size double bed. Good quality inflatable mattress available for 2 extra guests in lounge area.

Ample storage space, Flat screen TV. French doors to terrace and sea view.

Lounge/Kitchen/ Diner

Open plan area with French doors to terrace and sea-view.

Log burner, flat screen Freeview TV and DVD.

Utilities

Cooker, Microwave, Fridge, Freezer, Washing Machine, Clothes Dryer. Kettle, Toaster, Iron and Hair Dryer are also provided.

Rental

Flexible long or short term lets from a few days to a month or more. Changeover day is also flexible

Access

Access is from own car park and involves about 5 steps down, a 20 metre walk along gravel lane and then 17 steps up.

Other Information

The property is on the level other than steps down to beach and 4 steps up to outhouse where washing machine and dryer are located.

The property is situated on a rocky peninsula with steep drops in places to the beach and rocks, (approx 6 metres when low tide) although the area around the rear of the lodge and terrace sides is securely fenced, small children could cross the garden area to the front to where the cliff face is unprotected.

Further information and prices available at <http://www.holidaylettings.co.uk/rentals/porthmadog/109552>

Map of location

If you want to see a detailed map of the location then simply log onto the internet and Google Earth the location LL48 6EH and see the location for yourself.

Places of interest nearby.

Portmeirion

Portmeirion is a beautiful Italianate village designed by Sir Clough Williams-Ellis between 1925 and 1975 based on his love of Portofino, Italy. It is also famous for the location of the cult series 'Prisoner' back in the 1960's starring Patrick McGoohan.

Porthmadog

Porthmadog is the start location of the Ffestiniog Railway which takes you to Blana Ffestiniog, and soon will also be the start of the Welsh Highland Railway which travels through the scenic Welsh countryside through the Aberglaslyn Pass and on to Canaerfon.

Harlech

Visit Harlech and you can spend an afternoon strolling the ramparts of the medieval castle, play on the 18 hole golf course, spend an hour in the swimming pool or stroll the sand dunes to the beach.

“The answer to a dream holiday ‘near it all’ — yet ‘away from it all’”

Contact details:

Danny Brooks
Sunray Guest House
The Quay
Barmouth LL42 1HB
Telephone 01341 280985
Email: dandeman@globalnet.co.uk